

There is No Substitute for American Freedom and Exceptionalism

John Shulli has my full endorsement for the United States Senate from the great State of Delaware.

John is a fellow Soldier and American who puts duty, honor, and country first. As an Army Colonel with over 28 years of service, including deployments in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and senior strategic assignments at U.S. European Command, he has led in the most demanding environments our nation can place a man in. That matters. Pressure reveals character, and John has proven his.

He is not a politician. He is a warrior. He is a team builder. He is a leader who understands how to execute.

John Shulli will protect American sovereignty and public safety. He will help rebuild an economy worthy of a superpower, driven by reliable energy, strong industry, and sound fiscal principles. He knows education must prepare our next generation to compete, win, and lead.

What sets John apart is clarity and consistency. He stands firm in his convictions and does not recalibrate his principles based on circumstance or advantage. In a time when voters have seen too many shifting positions and convenient reinventions, that kind of steady leadership is rare; and it matters.

There is a clear choice in this race. On April 25, I encourage every delegate at the Delaware Republican Party Convention to cast their vote for John Shulli, and then again in the primary and general elections. This is a moment that requires clarity, conviction, and courage.

John is the right leader at the right time.

God Bless you, God Bless Delaware, and God Bless the United States of America.

Sincerely,

Michael T. Flynn
Lieutenant General, USA (Ret.)
